

Join us on an unforgettable evening tour to familiarize ourselves with mount Pelion, home of the mythical centaurs! A mountain so beautiful that -as the myth says- it was chosen by the 12 Olympian Gods as a summer residence!

As a highlight, we shall visit one of the oldest (13th century), most charming and unspoiled villages of mount Pelion and that is Agios Lavrentios! We shall have the chance to stroll around its lovely stone paved paths, admire the marvelous mansions' architecture, rest our eyes in lush vegetation, our ears in roaring waters, enjoy breathtaking views over the Pagaseticos gulf where green meets deep blue!

One of the very few traditional greek villages where No cars and No motorcycles are allowed! For those interested, we shall have a chance to acquaint ourselves with the famous -for their power and endurance- Thessalian horses. Alexander the Great's horse Buchefalus, was thought to be a Thessalian breed! We shall finally enjoy our sumptuous dinner at the village's main square, under the hundred years old plane trees!

We depart at, around, 18:30 from Volos University premises by bus to Agios Lavrentios village (25 km, approximately 35 minutes ride, elevating at 600 meters altitude. We better bring some extra light clothing in case it feels breezy!).

We shall have our nice walk around the village (comfortable shoes are necessary!) for, approximately, one hour. Finally we shall have our freshly cooked traditional dinner at the main piazza.

At, approximately, 23:30 we return by bus to Volos city.

The exact time and place of departure from Volos to be announced during the symposium.
